After the President calls for the nominations for a specific officer, any member may make a nomination. Nominations do not require a second. The person nominated is given the opportunity to accept or decline the nomination. When all nominations are finished for that office, the nominations are closed and the election for that office takes place. This process shall be repeated for each of the four elected officers. If only one person is nominated from the floor for an office, the President may declare that officer as being elected by acclamation. (Example: "There being no other nominations from the floor, I declare the office of _____ to be elected by acclamation.")

Elections for each office will be held in an open, public meeting and votes will be indicated by each Board member raising his/her hand for the nominated member. The President will refrain from voting and will cast the deciding vote in the event of a tie. This process is repeated as needed until all four officers are selected. A person nominated and not elected may be nominated again for another office.

A board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services may procure a policy or policies of insurance insuring board members or employees of the board or providers with which the board contracts against liability arising from the performance of their official duties. If the liability insurance is unavailable or the amount a board has procured or is able to procure is insufficient to cover the amount of a claim, the board may indemnify a board member or employee as follows:

No board member or employee of a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services shall be liable for injury or damages caused by any action or inaction taken within the scope of the board member's official duties or the employee's employment, whether or not such action or inaction is expressly authorized by this section or any other section of the Revised Code, unless such action or inaction constitutes willful or wanton misconduct. Chapter 2744. of the Revised Code applies to any action or inaction by a board member or employee of a board taken within the scope of the board member's official duties or employee's employment. For the purposes of this division, the conduct of a board member or employee shall not be considered willful or wanton misconduct if the board member or employee acted in good faith and in a manner that the board member or employee reasonably believed was in or was not opposed to the best interests of the board and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

Against any expenses, including attorneys' fees, the board member or employee actually and reasonably incurs as a result of a suit or other proceeding involving the defense of any action or inaction in the capacity of board member or employee or at the request of the board, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter raised in connection with the defense of such an action or inaction, to the extent that the board member or employee is successful on the merits or otherwise.

The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, or settlement, shall not, in itself, create any presumption that the Board representative did not act in good faith and in a manner that the Board representative reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Board.

The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, or settlement, shall not, in itself, create any presumption that the Board representative was not successful on the merits or otherwise.

The fact that a Board representative is sued in a personal capacity shall not, in itself, create any presumption that the Board representative was acting outside the performance of his or her official duties.

This right of indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Board member or employee to the extent the indemnification is in connection with any action or inaction in that person’s capacity as a Board member or employee, and shall become beneficial to the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person.

The foregoing indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of other rights to which a Board Representative may be entitled.
